

1.2 Component Layout

The Power Board is equipped with standard hole mounted components throughout. Several components are heavy and some require additional, mechanical fixation, TR101, L101, L102, IC104.

Components connected to 220/110VAC are positioned on the left side of the board.

All terminals for interfacing to the sensor and other equipment is located along the lower long edge.